

Sharing Thanksgiving is as Easy as Pie!

Washington D.C., NOV 2008: Professional Grounds, a local landscaping company in Lorton, VA helped support the Slice of Life program by raising over $900.00 just from selling pies! Shannon Reed and Angie Krause, employed at Professional Grounds, lead the team in their fundraising efforts and volunteered at the event.

This year over 3,100 holiday pies were sold and 1,500 pies were delivered to people with life-challenging illnesses. More than 34 sales teams sold pies and 160 volunteers gave their time to help distribute pies.

This year alone, Food & Friends will provide nearly 1,000,000 meals to children and adults battling HIV/AIDS, cancer and other life-challenging illnesses living throughout the Washington region.
